

Man Steals School Bus

Crashes It Into Group of Homeless People

On the Afternoon of September 12, an unidentified man stole a bus out of the edwardsburg public school bus garage and promptly drove it around town before driving it directly into a huddled group of homeless people. The man is described as having a stocky build and has an african accent.

"He said he liked buses", says the superintendent. After the incident took place, the man got out of the bus and left to never be seen again. Police speculate the culprit is possibly special needs. If anyone can provide any useful information, please contact the local police department. Back Home
